The chorus of the "Isle of Spice" company, which appears here shortly, has been acknowledged as one of the prettiest bunch of girls ever seen with a musical comedy. Their dancing, too, has been highly praised by both press and public. Tickets Thursday evening at 7:30.

The number of encores accorded the song "Peggy Brady," one of the biggest hits in the "Isle of Spice," has reached as high as twelve. Vandeville artists have besieged Manager R. C. Whitney with requests to permit them to use the popular numbers. As yet he has not granted permission, preferring to retain the exclusive rights for some time.

There will be a meeting of the police branch of the G. C. I. A., Thursday evening, May 17, at 7:30 p. m., at which time an election for the seat of government will be held. Sec. 27 of the constitution says that every good standing member neglecting to attend said meeting shall pay an assessment of 25c for neglect of duty. W. A. Clark, secretary.

One of the attractive features of the "Isle of Spice," which is to be shortly presented here, is the song, "The Goo Goo Man," sung by comedian Sam Mylie and twelve young and pretty little girls, stunningly costumed. This number is said to be one of the most sensational hits ever heard in musical comedy, and it is claimed that the audience in other cities have invariably demanded from a dozen to fifteen encores, which is surely a record. Everyone will probably be whistling "The Goo Goo Man" after it is heard here. Tickets Thursday evening at 7:30.
